Jesus words

*“As the father sent me
so I am sending you.....”*

(John 20)

LUKE 10: 1-12

The Lord now chose seventy-two other disciples and sent them ahead in pairs to all the towns and places he planned to visit. ² These were his instructions to them: “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields. ³ Now go, and remember that I am sending you out as lambs among wolves. ⁴ Don’t take any money with you, nor a traveler’s bag, nor an extra pair of sandals. And don’t stop to greet anyone on the road.

⁵ “Whenever you enter someone’s home, first say, ‘May God’s peace be on this house.’ ⁶ If those who live there are peaceful, the blessing will stand; if they are not, the blessing will return to you. ⁷ Don’t move around from home to home. Stay in one place, eating and drinking what they provide. Don’t hesitate to accept hospitality, because those who work deserve their pay.

⁸ “If you enter a town and it welcomes you, eat whatever is set before you.⁹ Heal the sick, and tell them, ‘The Kingdom of God is near you now.’

¹⁰ But if a town refuses to welcome you, go out into its streets and say,¹¹ ‘We wipe even the dust of your town from our feet to show that we have abandoned you to your fate. And know this—the Kingdom of God is near!’¹²

I assure you, even wicked Sodom will be better off than such a town on judgment day.

“We sometimes get the wrong impression about what God is interested in and where God works in the world. Some of us may think that the work of God is for those great heroic men and women who decided to give up all they have, move across to strange worlds and work amongst people with strange names and languages.

When these kinds of perspectives get into our imaginations we tend to see our neighbourhoods as just mundane places where we live (or work), but not much more. But what if God is just as interested and passionate about your neighbourhood?

What if, God is so committed to your neighbourhood that He is already ahead of you and up to something... desiring that you would have the eyes to see it and the heart to join? “

I AM SENDING YOU AS LAMBS AMONGST WOLVES.

When Christ calls a man, he bids him come and die.”
Dietrich Bonhoeffer, The Cost of Discipleship

- 214 churches or church properties are destroyed.
- Christians face greater persecution than any other religious.

*Please pray for those imprisoned and facing persecution day

“I am wired by nature to love the same toys that the world loves. I start to fit in. I start to love what others love. I start to call earth "home." Before you know it, I am calling luxuries "needs" and using my money just the way unbelievers do. I begin to forget the war. I don't think much about people perishing. Missions and unreached people drop out of my mind. I stop dreaming about the triumphs of grace. I sink into a secular mind-set that looks first to what man can do, not what God can do. It is a terrible sickness. And I thank God for those who have forced me again and again toward a wartime mind-set.”

Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for some who have done this have entertained angels without realizing it!

THEREFORE GO.....

Good Morning Lord.
What are you up to today that I can be apart of....

And they returned with joy and reported to him all that had happened.
